Bonuses usually come with wagering requirements, which means that you have to bet a certain amount of money before you can withdraw any winnings that you make with the bonus.

Wagering requirements can vary a lot. Some are as low as 1x, while others can be as high as 30x or more. It's important to read the terms and conditions of any bonus offer carefully.

Some common types of bonuses include:

- Match bonuses: The casino matches your deposit up to a certain amount.
- No deposit bonuses: You receive a bonus without having to make a deposit.
- Free spins: You receive a certain number of free spins on a slot game.
- Reload bonuses: You receive a bonus when you make a second or subsequent deposit.

It's important to remember that bonuses are not free money. They are a way for casinos to attract new players and reward existing ones. Always play responsibly and never gamble more than you can afford to lose.
