Sahara Nights (Yggdrasil Gaming): Overview

At this point, we've seen enough takes on the Aladdin-inspired story to know game developers don't always concern themselves with breaking out of the mold. It's perfectly understandable though - classics are classics for a reason. In other words, if it works, why fix it? It should come as no surprise that Yggdrasil Gaming's visit to the world of flying magical carpets and spiritual creatures, for the most part, is satisfied to colour inside the lines.

However, you're getting here is a visual masterpiece and a captivating adventure that could possibly have spent a bit more time on the mathematical design.

Open Sesame! In this first-ever Arabian-themed offering from Yggdrasil Gaming you'll be chasing your wishes across a 5x3, 20-payline reel set. Medium variance, it comes with magical lamps in the base game that expand into mystical genie wilds and a free spins round where up to three fully stacked sticky wild reels can turn gild to gold.

Use any device, including iOS and Android, to transport yourself to the Saharan desert and start spinning from 0.20 to </$100 per spin.

We know we say this in nearly every Yggdrasil Gaming review, but it's worth mentioning again. These guys design some of the best looking games in the industry and Sahara Nights is no exception. In fact, it's so visually appealing and atmospheric that we ended up spending far more time testing a game than usual. It's highly detailed, rich in colour and includes a beautiful string orchestral score that is a perfect fit for the game. Set inside the sultan's palace, and with the Arabian night sky visible in the distance, symbols on the reels include 4 lower-value gemstones as well as 4 more rewarding picture symbols represented by goblets, daggars, Aladdin and a princess. The sultan is by far the most rewarding, giving you 175 times your stake for a five of a kind combination - you only need two
