Background:

The history of gambling in Brazil dates back to the 19th century, with the establishment of the first casino in Rio de Janeiro in 1832. However, it wasn't until the 1990s that the industry began to experience significant growth, with the legalization of casinos in several states. Currently, Brazil has over 20 land-based casinos, but the online gambling market is still in its infancy. Despite this, there has been a surge in popularity of online casinos, with many Brazilians turning to offshore sites to satisfy their gambling needs.

In recent years, the Brazilian government has shown interest in regulating the online gambling market, with a bill suggesting the legalization and regulation of online gambling, including online sports betting and casinos. Experts predict a potential market size of R$ 100 billion by 2026.
