Secondly, the broad set of hidden information from The tiles makes Mahjong a much more difficult imperfect-informational game than previously studied ones. Such as Texas Hold'em poker! Thirdly the playing rule of Mahjong is much more complicated because it involves various actions: After a player is dealt a hand, they must discard a tile to draw a new one. This process is repeated until all tiles are dealt. The game is then played in rounds, with players taking turns to draw and discard tiles. The goal is to form a winning hand, which typically consists of four sets of three tiles and one pair of tiles. The game is a complex combination of skill and luck. Mahjong is a popular game in many cultures and has been adapted into various forms of entertainment, similar to the Western card game rummy. Mahjong is a game of skill and luck. Mahjong - Wikipedia
