Betting Markets And Odds Quality

Here's an area where 10bet really shines. They claim to offer an average of 60,000 events 3, £ to bet on each month, and the extensive selection of world sports you can bet on is thoroughly impressive. You'll find sports you didn't even know existed, let alone were able to pop a couple of quid on.

At the time of review there were 33 different sports to bet on, with thousands of betting markets for the most popular ones like football, horse racing and tennis. It's possible to place bets on 150 different football leagues from around the world. And when you're feeling really adventurous, you can always have a quick punt on floorball or bandy. You can also 3, £ wager on the increasingly popular eSports, and there are some nice special markets, like Eurovision and elections.

When it comes to 3, £ odds quality, 10bet might not offer anything to blow your socks off. It's generally competitive if nothing more, but what 3, £ they do is offer decent odds on tons of markets earlier than anyone else.

There are also a few different features 3, £ and offers that can improve your odds on certain markets. The Acca Boost, for instance, nets you an additional cash 3, £ bonus on winning combination bets, from 2% for trebles all the way up to 50% on a 16-fold bet.

In case 3, £ you prefer horse racing and your horse loses by a head or less only, you could easily claim an up 3, £ to £10 refund.

There are also many occasional promotions on 10bet that you won't want to miss.
